

AAFB Water Quality

Bioenvironmental Engineering tests the drinking water every month in order to ensure that all Airmen and their families have safe drinking water. They test for byproducts of chlorine, trihalomethanes (TTHM), bacteria levels and other chemicals.

How Altus AFB's Bioenvironmental Engineering Team Tests Water Quality

Collect Sample

Keep in temperature controlled area

Send to Lab

Analyze
Results

Take Action if Needed

